

CLUJ-NAPOCA – our city

The river Someș

Cluj-Napoca is built on the site of a Roman municipality, located on one of the main European routes, from Vienna to Bucharest. Located in a hilly area, the city spreads around the Someș River towards the surrounding hills.

The unofficial capital of Transylvania, the 2000-year-old Cluj-Napoca is one of the most vibrant cities in Romania.

With a population of around 400,000 people, out of which around 100,000 are college students, the city is bursting with energy the year round. Along with fine dining, cultural activities, a wonderful historical legacy and a great atmosphere, the city will certainly not disappoint those who add it to their travel itinerary. Living here is certainly a great experience for those who want to see urban Transylvanian life at its best.

The architecture in the city centre is reminiscent of the old Austro-Hungarian Empire, while elements of modernism have now been added to give the city a modern, exciting feel. The multi-ethnic and multi-cultural aspects can be traced almost anywhere; it is truly a place to express yourself. Almost religious denomination has at least a worship place.

Also, there are lots of museums, parks, sport facilities and an internationally acclaimed Botanical Garden, which are sure to appeal even to the most demanding visitor.

Not to mention the countless cafés, restaurants, clubs and discos where one can have a great time at any time of day or night.

Dynamism and friendliness characterize every-day life. Opportunities to build a career, to start your own business, to enrich your knowledge or just to have a good time are within everyone's reach.

Numerous public figures, renowned professors and scientists, artists and athletes as well as businesspeople have started their careers here. Their prized achievements stand proof of the city's cultural values and intrepid spirit. Cluj-Napoca is truly a place where things are happening.
