

Exchange Programs at State University of New York

Applications are now open for the Exchange Programs to be held at State University of New York.

SUNY is providing a limited number of partial Scholarships, each covering 70% of tuition fees, that can be applied toward enrolment in 2022 and 2023.

It has been a difficult past year with much change and loss from the pandemic, but we are looking forward to more hopeful times as the world and our campus reopens. State University of New York classrooms will welcome students again.

Designed to give the students the opportunity to gain the expertise needed to rapidly advance in their career, a certificate with State University of New York enables them to expand their knowledge and skills, build a professional network, and have a pathway to be more competitive in the job market through a 3-week program.
