

TRANSYLVANIA INTERNATIONAL SUMMER COURSES OF ROMANIAN LANGUAGE AND CIVILIZATION

49th edition

ONLINE

Date: July 20th – August 7th 2020

Time: Afternoon (Eastern European standard time: GMT+2)

Facilitators: Center for International Cooperation & The Department of Romanian Language, Culture and Civilisation

This is our first-time online teaching experience and we are thrilled about it. We are taking on this challenge enthusiastically and it awakes feelings of ingenuity and creativity, mostly because, as far as we know, no other higher education institution organized a Romanian language online course.

We are committed to delivering you a memorable experience making you overlook the lack of face-to-face engagement. We will pay attention to details and will establish a programme harmonized with the particular interests and needs of each of you. If until now we needed to consider all the local realities for the organization, this is the moment to focus solely on you.

You may be wondering why should you enroll in an online programme? You may consider the interaction is weak or you cannot wander places. You are partially right, but we are confident about our programme and we want to present you another angle.

Among the advantages we mention:

- You can either start learning the Romanian language from scratch or advance your present level
- We scheduled the courses in the afternoon (according to the European time zone), which allows people with different daily schedules to join the course
- Course materials will be posted on our platform so you can access them at any moment
- The platform we are using allows participants to meet and see the persons they are interacting with, including organizers, teachers, peers

- You can enjoy a varied social programme, containing interactive and interesting activities which will your challenge imagination
- You can easily connect with peers and establish new friendships
- The costs are low and you have access to the same amount of information and to same cultural facilities.

Deadline: July 15th
