International Conference Migration Dynamics and New Trends in European (In)Security, Ninth Edition, Cluj-Napoca, On site and via Zoom, October 27th -28th, 2022

The Ninth Edition of the International Conference Migration Dynamics and New Trends in European (In)Security, within the Jean Monnet Module Quo Vadis Europe? European Security, National and Ethnic Minority Issues: from Theory to Practice, will cover two separate, but interconnected topics: on one hand, the migration issues, involving topics related to societal security, identity(ies), minority issues, migration and refugees and on the other hand security studies.

Panel 1. Intelligence and European Governance for sustainable migration policies; This panel is designed to address the main issues and challenges related to international security and it integrates specific approaches of governance and intelligence.

Panel 2. Migration - (In)Security Nexus: International Migration and Security; The securitisation/desecuritisation of migration is nothing new, but in the new international context, these issues became a priority.

Panel 3. Refugees, Identity and Social Challenges; This panel focuses on the geopolitics of migration, the challenges posed by the large number of immigrants and refugees in Europe and the failure of multiculturalism in different EU member states.
