About Babes-Bolyai University (UBB)

UBB is by far the largest and most comprehensive higher institution in Romania, while Cluj-Napoca, its city of residence, is considered to be the most important student town in the country.

Its renowned excellency in advanced academic research and higher education programs is naturally validated, not only by the University's rich history and tradition.

Its openness to multi-culturalism, multilingualism and international approach of education makes UBB play a leading role, to be considered as the flagship of the Romanian higher education system, establishing national standards in teaching, research and community outreach.

Preparatory Year of Romanian Language

Are you a foreign citizen looking for the best place to learn Romanian language as soon as possible?

Babeş-Bolyai University offers a Romanian language preparatory year for the candidates who are not familiar with the Romanian language and opt to follow a study programme which is available only in Romanian.

The Romanian language preparatory year follows the structure of the academic year (October-June). It is an intensive course, comprising 25 hours of classes/week for two semesters.

The admission procedure follows the same steps and has the same calendar as the admission to other specialisations.

Processing fee: 50 EUR
Tuition fee: 3015 EUR / year
